FOURTH STREET FESTIVAL

In memoriam

Jack Forney was born on June 17th, 1950. He grew up in Miller Beach, IN where he enjoyed spending time on Lake Michigan. He met his wife and the love of his life, Joey, at Indiana University in the fall of 1969.. He studied painting, printmaking, and photography as as a fine arts student and was hired at a local jewelry studio where he learned the basics of metalsmithing.

In 1974, he decided to go independent with Joey and their two dogs, Mildred and Whistler. They lived in a camper for a year and a half, traveling to Florida doing art shows. Along the way, they met many artists who became lifelong friends. Throughout their art career, they won many awards for their creative jewelry.

In 1975, Jack and Joey decided to return to Bloomington. Since then, they have maintained a goldsmith studio in Bloomington, where they became co-owners of The By Hand Gallery. Later, in 1977, they exhibited at the first year of the 4th Street Art Fair. A few years later, Jack was on the committee and a chairman for a year. They exhibited at 4th Street every year since.
